events that include parent education, academic and community events. The DD is responsible for the joint development of the campus improvement plan and other site-based decisions. The Title I District Parent Advisory Committee is another opportunity for parents to take part in decision-making.

At Williams Elementary, we develop a school-parent-student compact that outlines how parents, the entire staff and students will share the responsibility for improved student learning and the way the school and parents will build and develop a partnership to help students reach the State Standards.

The Title I District Parent Advisory Committee is a group of parents who meet regularly with the Title I District and the School to discuss and provide input on the Title I District's Title I Program and the School's Title I Program. The Title I District Parent Advisory Committee is also responsible for providing input on the Title I District's Title I Program and the School's Title I Program.
