

By publicly posting the following written disclosure, the Arlington I intends that market participants receive and use it for purposes of the municipal advisor exemption to the SEC Municipal Advisor Rule.

Independent Registered Municipal Advisor July 1, 2014

The Arlington Independent School District (District) is an independent registered municipal advisor. The District will rely on its municipal advisor, [redacted], for advice on proposals from financial service providers regarding the issuance of municipal securities and matters (including investments of bond proceeds) for which individuals with primary responsibility for such matters are George Williford and Erick M. [redacted]. The District will be relied upon until withdrawal of this disclosure.